2. SELECTION CRITERIA

How does this nomination satisfy the selection criteria? Please refer to specific historical research, projects, publications and experience when addressing each of the criteria.

- 2.1 Demonstrated excellence in historical research in any one or more fields of Queensland or Australian history.
- 2.2 Demonstrated and identified use of wide-spread appropriate source material in the context of the nominee's research field or fields.
- 2.3 Demonstrated objective analysis, distillation and interpretation of historical source material leading to the formation of historical arguments arising out of the research.
- 2.4 Demonstrated acceptance of the highest standards of scholarship as judged by the Queensland community of professional historians, assessing the work of written contributions of the nominee.
- 2.5 Nominee is currently practicing as a historian at a professional standard.

NOMINATION

The nomination must be in writing, and address all of the criteria above. Where the selection committee considers a nomination to be incomplete, the nominator will be asked to provide additional information. Written referee statements may be used to support the nomination. Any referee statements should address one or more of the selection criteria.

ATTACHMENTS

Nominations must include a curriculum vitae. A comprehensive list of publications plus brief details of commissioned projects must be included with this nomination. Where a cited publication is not readily available in southeast Queensland libraries, a copy of that publication should form part of the nomination. Copies or examples of work along with any other supporting information may be forwarded in support of the nomination; however, such material will be returned only at the expense of the nominee.

CHECKLIST

I have attached the following:

- Nomination details in full (page 1)
- Statement outlining how nominee meets each selection criterion
- CV including academic qualifications and brief details of commissioned projects
- Comprehensive list of history-related publications and reports
- Copies of publications and reports not available in southeast Queensland libraries
- Written referee statements, if appropriate, addressing selection criteria
